Approaching a new challenge in life my Boss sold his business and asked me to assist him in liquidising the office interior that the new owner won't take over. I've therefore remodeled this Marktplaats account and put all items that are to be sold online at once.

Feel free to browse through the other offers, a discount for bulkbuying is not guaranteed but most likely.

Clearing out one of the cabinets I came across this Macbook Pro. It has been in there for the last three years without usage so although it is an early 2015 model, it can be seen as a youngster considering the work hours and in order to verify its status I've let a certified Mac repair store open and check the MacBook. The technician literally said: "Wow, I've never seen a five year old MacBook that looks so new (see picture nr. 2) not a single dust particle to be found!"

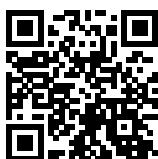

So what we offer here is an Apple MacBook Pro Model A1502 (Retina, 13-inch, Early 2015) with a 2,7 GHz Intel Core i5 Processor with Level 3-cache Turbo boost to 3,1 GHz, 8 GB 1867 MHz DDR3 SDRAM, 256GB SSD Memory, FaceTimeHD Intel Iris Graphics 6100 with 1536 MB, MacOS X 10.11.6 El Capitan, Serial Number: C02R68TBFVH5

It has the complete Alum casing and the black backlight keyboard. Left side ports from front to back are: Audio Headphone, USB, two Apple power outlets and the magnetic Mac AV/Power inlet. Right side Ports from front to back are: Card reader, HDMI and USB.

This is a liquidating System. It is a fact that I saw this see picture nr. 1. You will get the goods over a short period of time. On the other hand, it is a fact that you prefer to have the goods in your possession. It will be a fact that you will be able to see the goods in your possession. The fact that you will be able to see the goods in your possession is a fact that you will be able to see the goods in your possession.

As mentioned above it is our office-sale-out so all offered items are located at the office and need to be picked up here in the Houwhaven, 1015 CA Amsterdam

Respecting the increased health risk of cash payment (and the inconvenience of soaking every note in disinfectant - just kidding, handgloves do the job, but still) the preferred payment method is bank transfer (but to clarify: cash in hand is possible, too - we've got enough gloves in house :) And since we're already at this aspect, regarding the current health issue we additionally disinfect every item and wear gloves when handing them over to avoid any possible virusspreading and have facemasks and handgloves for you ready if you want to protect yourself when picking up your new acquisition/s.

Any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact (via phone or e-mail) and ask me.

To finish the ad I'd like to apologise for writing in English, but my Dutch is so miserable, that it wouldn't make any sense to even try as no one would understand what it is about that they are reading and constant misunderstanding would be the ineffable consequence.

Last but not least: Neither is there guarantee / warranty on the offered and posted item nor is refund possible but should there be any problem I'm sure we'll find a solution, so please contact us in such a.
