Grote partij.
 Bij groter aantal kunnen we wel een prijs maken.
 Vraag me niet hoe het werkt, heb ze zelf nooit gebruikt.

FX100

FX100 is a standalone NFC reader that runs Secured Android 6 and can be used in many B2B contexts for ticketing, payments, tracking, access control.

A secure Android-based device

The FX100 is a dedicated handheld device, designed for light and flexible mobile work.

It's based on Famoco OS – Android OS for businesses – and let you easily deploy the app you need.

This pocket-sized terminal is natively connected to Famoco Mobile Device Management to give you the ability to control it remotely.

It allows businesses to equip their teams with a secure handheld device, remotely managed and capable of performing any transaction.

The FX100 is very versatile and has no street value as it is less likely to be stolen.
