Perfect shape, fantastic monitor calibrated for professional colorwork. I am only getting rid of this because I am moving out of the country. Otherwise, it would not leave my desk !!

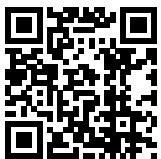

Comes with USB, Displayport, HDMI and Power cables.

With the Dell UltraSharp U2518D you can edit your photos and corporate videos at the office or at home in a QHD resolution. Or use it to check your mail or watch a movie. Thanks to the thin bezels, you have a lot of screen space available and this Dell is very suitable for a multi-monitor setup. For example, work on your presentation while processing the latest comments from the email on another screen. Do you want to edit photos? With the 2560 x 1440 resolution, that's no problem at all on this monitor. Thanks to the IPS panel you can see the colors from every angle. The Dell is adjustable in various ways, so you always assume a pleasant working position. After purchase, you will immediately get started with your new monitor, because a DisplayPort connection cable is included as.
