I am the original owner of the computer. It is in neat condition, as I only used it when I'm travelling. Clean install of latest Windows 10 is included, but no additional software is included.

I bought the computer in the US, so the AC adapter is American style. I include a free European plug adapter so you can use it directly.

I include the keyboard (new one sells for 120 euros) in the listing price, but for the pen (a black, latest-gen Surface Pen) it would be 50 euros more on top of the listing price.

I won't mail

the computer, as it could damage the computer and the responsibility could become problematic. Pick up is strongly preferred (Amsterdam 1098XB). I can personally drive to deliver anywhere within 1.5 hours of driving from Amsterdam with extra.
