This Macbook Pro was purchased by me in the US a few weeks ago, but I wound up buying a different laptop to use, so I don't need this one. This is the new M1 model.

It's been turned on for a few hours only, by any reasonable description it's "New" or "Like New". All original box and packaging included; I have the receipt as well for the original purchase.

This is the US keyboard model, but that makes no difference in practice, since you can set it up for Dutch if you prefer.

I'm in South Amsterdam, prefer to make an exchange in person. Feel free to reach out with any.
