Because my new employer provided me with a new office setup, I am selling my well-maintained essential office items:

I've had the docking station for 10 months. I've bought the laptop in June of 2016. Last year the laptop's keyboard and trackpad were replaced with new parts because I like to keep my electreonics in tip-top shape! Therefore, all three items have minimal wear.

The price is so low because the laptop needs to!
