Amsterdam West The reason I'm selling is that I'm upgrading soon. The thing is in absolute MINT condition and 100% battery capacity!

That's cause I got the casing and battery replaced by Apple (they also replaced the screen as the whole thing is one unit) last week in anticipation of selling it (there was a dent on the side of the casing and I wanted to sell it as brand new!) Hence the battery capacity is 100%

I bought the whole thing for €2300 Euros with AppleCare Plus of which about 2 years and 4 months (until pretty much 2024) is still available. So be mindful that you're also getting this with the laptop, and it's a discount you're getting for that too! It's really will save your butt when a problem happens, from spending close to a new laptop to replace stuff with Apple (so, two accidental damages per year are covered).

No HAGGLING, only contact me if you're seriously interested. I don't have the time to entertain scammers and people who have all day to bargain for €50, I salute your hustle. But don't hassle me. My time is valuable to me.

It's pretty much as shiny as it came.

Only for pickup in Amsterdam West next to Westerpark. (Will arrange for a quick video call first before picking up to not waste my time and be safe with scammers).
