I'm selling a Dell U2720Q 4K monitor that was left with me after leaving the company that I previously worked for.

The monitor was used when working from home for about 6 months, and is in perfect condition, never moved from the desk.

I am selling it in its original box with the cables that were initially included. Currently sold in shops between 650 and 700€, I am selling it for 400€ non-negotiable.

Technical specs are included in the pictures of this ad.

Pick up only from Amsterdam Centrum
