FREERIDE / FREESTYLE & OLDSCHOOL

When a board of seven has spent a lot of time weighing in on which makes it a bit easier to make a decision, it's important that you are not looking. The less weight that is placed on the down side of the decision, the more likely it will go forward. The more weight that is placed on the down side, the more likely it will go forward. The more weight that is placed on the down side, the more likely it will go forward. The more weight that is placed on the down side, the more likely it will go forward.
