The car is in good condition, on the move every day, but by the time I was forced to grow up with it, life circumstances have made their changes. there are minor problems on the bodywork (small scratches), I think after polishing everything will disappear, the threads on the seam are torn on the seat, this is also not a big problem, it will not take much time to fix it, if desired.
 I can bring a car to anywhere in the Netherlands (by agreement). selling a car is not a shame.
 The car is wonderfully preserved for its age, serviced in the service.
