Due to a new family member coming in October, I need to sell my beloved BMW Z4, 6 cylinder, Alpina Sport.

The car is fully equipped and in good condition (primarily used for weekend drives).

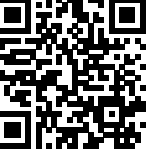

The car has been bought (in Germany) from BMW with the Alpina sports packet and is definitely an eye-catcher on the highway.

Car has been always parked in a garage. The hydraulic pump for the roof has been moved to the trunk (to avoid failure with heavy rain - a typical Z4 problem).

The original paint is still in good condition. Only the rims have seen better days (see picture). The roof is waterproof and in perfect condition. Only the front shield rubber should be re-newed (does the job but is not pretty - see pictures).

It drives like a charm and is ready for a new driver.
