As good as new iPhone 12pro 256gb. When I bought it, I immediately put a case and screen protector on it, so it remained protected for any subtle scratches. I used it for little over 1 year and now selling as I got gifted with another phone which I must keep :-)

Battery is optimal, goes a full day and beyond with good usage. With 256 GB, you will never run out of storage.

It will come with a new extra screen protector and original box with sim pin and stickers. the current case also you can keep which i replaced a few days back.

It's a beautiful piece with amazing eye catch dark blue back which looks great in all occasions. After all it's Apple Iphone limited:-)
