selling one of my daily drivers, a Motovespa CL 150, photos taken today. need space for another scooter. tyres, brake pads, cylinder and piston changed a couple of years ago, used in town to go to work, electrics work, carb ultrasonic cleaned, Femsa CDI unit new.

partly a first series PX, partly a Rally, very easy to drive without being a racer, some parts in original colour and some repainted years ago. some superficial rust on the engine cowl.

imported directly from Spain, currently in The Netherlands on Dutch plates.

asking 2950 euros (shipping/delivery)
