I'm looking for the shell of a Unifi UNVR. I'm looking specifically for the non-pro version, but beggars cant be choosers, if you have one send me a message. The case and drive bays are what im after. If you have a non functioning unit and dont know what to do with it, ill take it off your hands even if you want to keep the motherboard. But all other parts im interested in keeping intact. Looking for decent condition of the steel shell. Bays must work as intended and not be damaged. The intention is to keep all internal leds, power coupling, RPS connector cover, Drive trays and of course the server chassis. Everything else can be removed and kept, or taken (either way). All points negotiable. Price negotiated upon inspection (pictures).
