Looking for a challenging job in the field of Accounts Receivable with a lot of responsibilities and growth opportunities, in a large multinational, innovative company focused on inclusion and partnership? Then we have the job for you!

Wat doe je als Receivable Specialist (Turkish, English)?

For the role of Receivable Specialist it is important to have a good insight in your customers portfolio and payment behaviors. It is critical to build up a good connection with your customers as well as your internal stakeholders in Invoice to Cash, Customer Service and our Commercial and Financial teams, to be able to tackle any incoming issue or query in a timely, constructive, and effective manner. You don't step away from a problem, but you show to be independent and proactive to ensure the best customer experience. Together with your communication skills in Turkish and English, you'll be able to understand our customer's needs, as well as ensure invoices are issued and processed timely and correctly.

Wat kun je?

As a Receivable Specialist, you will complete the following tasks:

Serve as main customer contact for accounts receivable matters
Lead near due and past due collections activities
Influence customer payment behaviors
Monitor and release credit order blocks
Issue correction documents to customers
Maintain in depth customer account knowledge
Manage accounts reconciliations

To do so, you must meet the following requirements:

• You are a native English and Turkish speaker
• You have a Bachelor or an equivalent education minimum
• You have some experience in accounts receivable matters
• You have some experience in customer service
• You have some experience in invoice management
• You are a proactive and self-motivated person
• You are able to work in a multicultural environment
• You are able to work in a combination of working from office and home, focusing on a balanced work-life situation for our employees.

Wat krijg je?

We offer a long term position of 40 hours, where you get the opportunity to develop yourself in the field. You will receive a competitive salary, which is based on your CV. In addition, commuting costs are reimbursed at €0.19 per kilometer (max 75 kilometers one way) and, if applicable, you will be reimbursed
