Samsung LU32R590CWUXEN is a 32-inch curved 4K monitor on which you won't miss any detail of your digital design. Because of the resolution, you have 4 times as much space as on a Full HD screen and the image is 4 times as sharp. This gives you room for more programs and windows. Due to the size of this monitor, the text is not too small, but it is displayed razor-sharp. In addition, the LU32R590CWUXEN displays many more colors than a normal screen, due to the 10-bit color depth of the screen panel. Thanks to the blue light filter, you won't suffer from tired eyes as quickly. The monitor has a modern design with built-in cable management at the back, so you can neatly hide the.
