 IntroductieThe high-tech company has a team of experienced system architects who play a critical role in designing and developing state-of-the-art products and services. They work closely with other teams to ensure technical vision, performance, scalability, and reliability. The company is committed to providing the resources and support needed to continue innovating and delivering solutions that exceed client expectations.
 FunctieomschrijvingAs a Model Based Systems Architect, you are the creator of new product and process structures. At our client, you investigate which product variants have been sold in the recent past. Based on that, you come up with which functional mechatronic modules this product can be divided into, and what variants there are for these modules. You are creative in designing the interface between these modules. Then the modules have to be produced. It all has to be feasible, of course. And reproducible with the same quality. Throughout the entire process, you always take into account time, quality, money, and technology.
 Wat verwachten we van jou?Completed Bachelor or Master or PhD degree in, Mechatronics, Mechanical, Electronics, or Electro Engineering, embedded systems or a similar field is required
 Work experience is required, with experience in project-based work
 Knowledge and skills in CPQ, CAD, Lean Six Sigma, ERP, MES, and PLM are also required.
 Wat kun jij van ons verwachten?The right candidate will be provided a challenging and varied position in a professional, high-tech environment. An appropriate salary based on your experience and education. Future prospects and excellent benefits are evident. After a period of secondment and functioning properly, you can be contracted by our client. Good secondary conditions such as a minimum of 25 holidays and 8,33% holiday allowance. Courses to develop yourself professionally and personally via Trinamics Academy. Discount on your healthcare and referral bonuses and fun activities.
