We are looking for an enthusiastic order picker to tackle our orders. You work hard, but you laugh harder because working with us is like a party. As an order picker, you know how to make our orders ready as quickly and accurately as possible. Whether it's collaborating with colleagues or working in a cold freezer, you don't shy away from a challenge. Your responsibilities include: Order picking Loading and unloading incoming goods Sorting products Keeping the warehouse stocked and tidy We work in two shifts, and you will be trained during the day shift to learn everything. The shift times are as follows: Weekdays: Day Shift: 09:00 - 15:00 Evening Shift: 18:00 - 02:00 Weekend: Saturday + Sunday: 16:00 - 00:00 Over het bedrijf ABOUT THE COMPANY We make food professionals more successful. On our online marketplace, every chef, cook, and entrepreneur is connected to the finest international and local offerings. Easily ordered and delivered right to the kitchen. Our focus is entirely on the professional food world: from snack bars to caterers, from cafeterias to healthcare facilities, and from hotels to restaurants. Above all, we are a people-oriented company. Our approach is personal. Like no other, we understand the unique needs and challenges of every food professional. The first building blocks of our company were laid in the 1940s. Since then, our founders have done everything possible to make the vast food world accessible. Tirelessly, they have brought together people and resources. Through strategic acquisitions of foodservice wholesalers and fresh produce suppliers, we have grown into the largest online marketplace in the foodservice industry. Today, our organization has 1,700 employees, a fleet of 350 trucks, 25,000 different customers, and 17 locations throughout the Netherlands. In 2007, our company became part of an international foodservice company, bringing numerous benefits to our customers as everything is available. Our sister companies are spread across 30 countries and different continents. By closely collaborating with them, we can source our products directly from the origins worldwide. In a transparent and sustainable manner.
