Hello everyone, sorry I don't speak Dutch, I'm British. What I have here is:

2010 Kawasaki ZZR1400
 Akrapovi? Exhausts
 Comfortable Sargent Seat and
 30mm Bar raisers

The good:

1. Engine is very strong
2. ECU Flashed by BSD engineering in Peterborough England. It has a little more power than standard, approaching 207hp with ram air.
3. Speed limit of 300km/h has been removed
4. Has been regularly serviced most recently with Motul 4000 10w-40
5. Front forks have been flushed and oil changed about 3km ago.

6. Spark plugs have also been changed 3km ago

7. The engine has been cleaned and oil changed.

8. The bike has replaced the oil.

9. The bike has replaced the oil.

10. The bike has replaced the oil.

The Bad:

The bike functions perfectly

The bike functions perfectly

The bike functions perfectly

1. The bike has been used extensively for cross country international trips.
 2. It shows signs of wear and tear.
 3. It has been dropped from a standstill due to slippery ground. Please see pictures.
 4. The fuel tank has a few deep scratches that have been touched up by paint. Please see pictures.
 5. Wheels have heavy pitting. Please see pictures.

The asking price is based on the condition of the bike.

All in all this is a superlative Bike that commands respect. It is supremely fast and I have taken it over 300km/h on the Autobahn to East Germany.

I am open to realistic offers. Let's not waste each other's time. Ridiculous offers will be ignored.
I will be happy to show you its features and riding.
