MatchX M2 Pro miner for MXC/DHX/Bitcoin(BTC).
 Fully migrated miner to AXS app and it's already minted which means:

Increased Transaction Speed: The transition to AXS promises significantly increased transaction speed for data payments, which is beneficial for users.

Increased Token Usage: The new environment will improve and expand the use of MXC tokens.

Data Mapping and Tracking: Enhanced data mapping and tracking will be available, giving users more control over their data.

Reduced GAS Fees: Trading MXC will result in reduced GAS fees, meaning cost savings for users.

Improved Third Party Integration: Third party integration into the data network will be improved, resulting in new tokens that can be mined and tracked by miners.

A brand new environment: Via a handy dashboard you have a complete overview of all new insights and functionalities at once. Completely running on the blockchain itself.

With full health and fuel and the original
