Bedrijfsomschrijving

The company you will be working for is a supplier and producer of frozen baked goods. The cookies, pastries, and desserts they produce are intended for true connoisseurs who are indulged all over the world. In the Melissant location, they specialize in the production of cream-filled donuts. The combination of teamwork, achieving optimal results, and a pleasant atmosphere makes this company enjoyable to work for.

Functieomschrijving

What you'll be doing as a production assistant? You will be working in the production department, in three shifts with two other direct colleagues. In this department, you will be operating injection molding machines and compressors to produce plastic components. You will work based on instructions and guidelines to produce the product according to the appropriate specifications. Initially, of course, you will do this with a colleague until you are ready to do it independently. After producing the products, you will also need to describe them in the appropriate documentation. And, of course, you will ensure that you properly clean your workplace at the end of the day.
