Functieomschrijving

You will be working as a production tableleader in an entertaining company!

While your colleagues are (re-)packing the cucumbers or bell peppers, you have to make sure the production process goes as smoothly as possible. Are the supplies of the vegetables in order? Are there enough boxes, bags and stickers? Are the fully packed boxes being removed just on time?

In this process you will be the managing role, the one who takes care of the production table. The job has to be fulfilled by someone who can make people feel comfortable with a smile. If you prove your value for the company there is a permanent deal for the night.

What do we expect from you?

You have relevant working experience, a forklift certificate and you live in the area of Westland/Den Haag.

Production tableleader

You are flexible and motivated. It is a plus to be in possession of a driving license.
