The Triumph Alder GORE-TEX Adventure Tourer Jean is constructed from a 3-layer GORE-TEX fabric guaranteeing waterproof, windproof and great breathability. The zip out insulated liner offers adaptability for all climates, you can open the vents on hotter days but still stay warm on the colder rides. The high rise shaped back offers increased protection of the lower back from the elements. Every element of the design has been thought out, from zips and gusset on the leg giving the choice to wear boots under or over the trouser, to removable D3O knee and hip protectors. These jeans can be connected to any Triumph Adventure touring outer jacket. CLIMATE Constructed from 3-layer GORE-TEX fabric, GORE-TEX product technology is both durably waterproof and windproof Optimised breathability provides a high degree of protection and comfort GORE-TEX garments have a water-resistant treatment called DWR applied to the outer fabric, which allows the water to bead up and roll off the fabric rather than soaking in Fixed internal breathable AirFlow mesh lining Insulation layer on seat to avoid reverse moisture transmission Air vents directing flow through Removable thermal insulation liner PROTECTION CE certified to EN 17092-3 AA CE Certified to EN 1621-1 removable Airflow D3O Hip protectors CE certified to EN 1621-1 extended removable D3O knee protectors Connection zipper to match to any Triumph jacket ERGONOMICS Ergonomically shaped jean construction for maximum comfort whilst riding Waist adjustment Hem adjustment FABRIC GORE-TEX 3L outer fabric Texland stretch fabric behind knee for comfort & flexibility of movement with an internal GORE-TEX liner Texland reinforced fabric on lower ankle panels FEATURES Reflective detailing for increased rider visibility 2 zip closure pockets on jean
