Dainese Misano 2 D-Air Ladies one piece suit 42. The condition is as new, additional new knee sliders are included. Worn once but it doesnt fit me well.

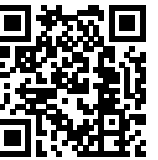

The iconic and Dainese's leather track suit with the latest generation of the D-air® airbag technology, revisited to enhance comfort and protection.

It features new ergonomics like the knee grips inserts, self-locking zippers on wrists, maintaining its legendary fit.

High safety standards are upgraded by new sliders on elbows and integrated knee protectors with unexposed stitching.

3rd generation D-air® is fully embedded into the suit and integrates the Track-It system, that allows to download and check main performance data like lean angle and speed.
