I am selling this car as I am buying a bigger car for my family. I have used the car for almost a year now, it drives wonderful with good response and drivability. Recently got the Apk done for until March 2025.

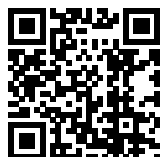

I have maintained it well with updates on wheel bearings, seat belts, tyres (front two which were a bit worn) and Engine oil is changed. The car has metal/chain timing belt, which does not need replacement. The fuel consumption is very good with average consumption of 5lt of petrol per 100km of driving.

During the time I owned the car, I had to only take care of Fuel and tyre.
