Hello kilters,

Unfortunately my reason for sale is I will be leaving the Netherlands for work for a longer period of time so I do not have time to kite often, This full set is perfect for the beginner looking for good quality entry to get kiting. The kites have been serviced last year and no repair was needed, the bar has some visual use but the lines are in very good condition, the board is a beginner to intermediate friendly twin tip Board , carves very well but is floaty enough for beginners, the harness is top of the line ride engine elite carbon and is in excellent condition,
