13.3 inch E reader / note taking tablet

The brand is called Boox and the model is the Max Lumi .

It comes with a real handmade leather case

This is the Boox Max Lumi

13.3 inch e ink (the biggest screen available for e ink)Wacom layer so you can write on it like paper. Highly accurate so you can write, draw, etcIt can function as an external monitor so you can take it with you alongside your laptop as a second e ink monitorSplit screen ui capability so you can, for example, have a book on one half and notes on the other half, or any app on one half and any other app (a book, notes, browser) on the otherFull android so all android apps are available allowing you to synch with OneNote, etc or any app in your work flowAdjustable front light with both cool and warm light so you don't strain your eyesSuper durable screen (the e ink panel is made from plastic instead of glass so it will not break)Very large batteryVery light (378g)

This is extremely reliable and am selling because I bought a smaller one that suits my needs. I'm an academic so I've used it for reading and writing mainly in the office environment, as such It is only lightly used, never dropped, and in perfect working order . I hope someone can give it a good home. Bought new originally for 950 EU and the case was 100 EU so I am thinking about selling everything together for 1000 EU but feel free to make me an offer if you are willing to
