Functieomschrijving

You will be working as an EPT orderpicker for an entertaining fresh products company!

Some experience as orderpicker and driving an EPT (Electrical Pallet Truck) is required. Making your way flexibly and safe through the hall and bringing loaded pallets to the right spots so when your production colleagues need them for (re-)packing they will not be left empty handed.

You are aware that your job is crucial for the process. Being aware, anticipating and careful is all in your possession. Work with a smile, just like the rest of your colleagues. If you prove your value for the company there is a permanent deal in the foresight.
