Functieomschrijving

Unleash your creativity and analytical skills as the next E-mail Marketing Specialist. Your strategic insights and campaigns will not just reach audiences; they'll engage and inspire photographers and imaging enthusiasts across Europe! You are the key person to develop and execute a comprehensive e-mail marketing campaign strategy to increase the performance of the e-mail channel and to achieve all D2C targets.

Your job as an E-mail Marketing Specialist:

Joining this Imaging Division, you'll be pivotal in shaping their client's email marketing strategies to enhance direct-to-consumer communications and sales. You will do this by execution of weekly operational tasks such as creation of newsletters for multi country campaigns, align continuously with local CRM team members, handling sending process and alignment on segmentation and e-mail flows. By designing compelling, relevant, and user-friendly newsletters that resonate with the target audience and improve target KPI's. Your role includes:

Developing and executing email campaign strategies to enhance performance and achieve targets. Designing engaging newsletters and forms that resonate with the diverse audience. Analyzing performance to refine strategies. Annually reviewing the term business relations and generating sign-ups for their journey.

Your workplace:

Situated in the dynamic European headquarters in Amstelveen, you will be part of a new team that values creativity and collaborative success. The modern office environment fosters innovation and provides a supportive backdrop for all your professional endeavours. You will report directly to the Manager D2C Marketing, collaborating closely with the Marketing Automation Lead and other key marketing personnel across Europe to ensure a united marketing approach.
