You need a boat that gets you through whatever the moment throws at you. A bombproof step pillar, 5 metal z-drags and uberstable, soft-landing hull are mandatory when you're plunging first descents. The Habitat holds any line you put it on, and with the lift of a knee, you'll be carving into eddies with absolute control. Like that? We thought you might. So whether you're a newbie to creeking or a veteran paddler, we have the.
