

<https://www.advertentia.nl/x-956136-z>

YOUR SCOPE OF DUTIES:

responsible for the disciplinary and professional management of the team	responsible for introduction and compliance of processes in the day to day operation
leads the team through the migration process into the new standard	challenges status-quo and implements improvement projects
aligns capacity to global request and controls prioritization	data quality assurance further development of our internal data entry program

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS: *Completed higher education (BA / Masters) or you have the working

~~experience within this level~~

It is a very technical knowledge of big data in environments and in the use of tools as a strong affinity with the technical knowledge of vehicles and the willingness to learn technical knowledge of vehicles is efficient in the use of latest Microsoft version and Microsoft Database skills Access, in the last several years of experience in the big data field, knowledge of spare parts and process planning management experienceA structured and analytical approach to work and the capacity to act

Independently and responsibly You have an entrepreneurial mindset, socially excellent communication skills and you are results oriented. A self-assured manner, a hands-on mentality at the same time and a proven track record of the successful use of these skills in a managing people and processes. You believe in leading by example. Excellent English skills and preferably you have good German skills.

OUR OFFER: *Participation in the value-oriented culture and digital transformation of TecAlliance:

Agile mindset | One team | Ownership

Group Manager Information Management

Group Manager Information Management

Group Manager Information Management

Group Manager Information Management

Group Manager Information

Group Manager Information

Group Manager Information

Group Manager Information

Group Manager Information

Group Manager Information Management

<https://www.advertentiax.nl/x-956136-z>

Modern workstations with flexible working hours - also from the home-office
Various possibilities for professional and personal development
Company pension scheme, Discount on health insurance,
TecAlliance Corporate Benefits
Free drinks & company events
We look forward to receiving your application including a motivational letter - digitally of course.

Do you have any questions? No problem. You can contact Shanna Hofstede at +31 (0) 6-54252463.

We are eager to receive your application and would be delighted to welcome you as part of our team soon! If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Shanna Hofstede (+31 (0)6 54 2524 63).
We don't accept any profiles from employment agencies which we didn't contacted ourselves for.